KOREAN SUGAR INDUSTRY.

The Belgian consul at Seoul states that efforts have been made for some years to establish the sugar industry in Chosen (Korea), and the most satisfactory results have been obtained from experiments in beet growing carried out in the northern Provinces. The prospects are in fact so encouraging that a group of influential Japanese and Korean capitalists have arranged to form a company with $2,500,000 gold capital to carry on beet growing on a commercial scale. It is proposed to conduct operations in the extensive plains in the Hoang Shu district, which is traversed by the Fusan-Antung Railway.

VISIBLE SUGAR SUPPLY.

Willitt & Gray give the following statement of the visible supply of sugar on September 26:

Total stock of Europe and America, 795,421 tons against 757,282 tons last year at the same uneven date. The increase of stock is 38,139 tons against an increase of 106,460 tons last week. Total stocks and floats together show a visible supply of 987,421 tons against 1,054,282 tons last year, or a decrease of 66,861 tons.

LAST DAY TO REGISTER

Get your name on the Great Register before twelve o'clock tonight if you have any intention of voting at the coming election on November 5.

As was predicted, there was a crowd

In the Clerk's office all day yesterday, crowding and sweating for a chance to get their names on the register, and when the book was closed last night there were 7656 names recorded, and the number will come pretty close to 8000 when the book is closed tonight, according to those who keep tabs on such things.

There is a slight increase over the registration of two years ago, and statistics on this and other matters of a like nature will be obtainable after the segregation of the voters in districts.

But don't lose sight of the fact that today is the last chance to get on the register. It will close tonight at midnight.

The registration up to noon today was 7732, and the indications are that there will be a rush at the clerk's office during the evening.

POLITICAL NOTES

The Democrats at Hauula, this island, last night organized a political club.

The Republican party meeting, held last night at Atkinson Park, was a great success.

"The Hawaiians listened to the Democratic speakers attentively despite showers of blessing."

John H. Wise, and the other leaders of the Republican party, went to Hauula this morning on a political mission.

W. H. Crawford, champion Hawaiian interpreter of the Republican party, is believed to be after the next Hawaiian Interpretation in the House of Representatives.

The Democrats have decided to try the plan of raising a popular subscription fund, their political exchequer being low, Charles Barron is passing the hat in this county.

Col. Sam Parker, regular Republican nominee for mayor, is winning the confidence of the Hawaiian voters. In his speech before the employees of the Honolulu Iron Works yesterday, the Colonel, made a hit with the boys there.

"Wela ka hao"—was the keynote of E. H. Paris' speech yesterday noon, when he addressed the boys of the Honolulu Iron Works. They greeted him with "wela ka hao" cheers and applause. Paris made good when he selected the famous Hawaiian phrase.

E. J. McCandless, Democratic candidate for representative from the Fifth District, stated this morning that the Democratic meeting last night at Walpole, was something like that of the days when the late R. W. Wilcox, was running for Delegate to Congress.

The campaign soap-box got a good start on its three weeks' activity yesterday. Barron was the first speaker to mount the historic throne. Sam Koloa is master of ceremonies, and each noon the box is occupied. Bethel and King street has been set apart by tacit consent for the meeting place.

All the delegates to the last Republican county convention have been invited by the leaders of the Republican Headquarters to attend the meeting, called for next Thursday, October 17, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

At the meeting, matters of great importance will be brought up for discussion, and, it is expected that all the candidates will come.

Edwin K. Fernandez, candidate for representative from the Fifth District, returned this morning from Hilo in the Mauna Kea. His right eye, which was injured while on Maui, is improving.

Fernandez, who is an expert moving picture man, this morning called at the Republican Headquarters and made arrangements for stereoptical picture shows to be exhibited at the meetings of the Republican party.
